

OHIO REMAINS A DRY STATE

Majority May Be Three Times the Original Prohibition Vote a Year Ago

KILLED 2.75 PER CENT
ALCOHOL MEASURE

Also Voted to Put into Effect Crabbe Prohibition Enforcement Bill

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—Ohio yesterday voted to remain in the dry column by a majority which may reach three times the size of that by which it voted prohibition a year ago, according to incomplete and unofficial returns received early to-day at the office of the secretary of state.

In addition to defeating the proposed repeal of state-wide prohibition, Ohio yesterday apparently voted by big majorities to uphold the action of the legislature in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment; to kill a proposal for the manufacture and sale of beer containing as high as 2.75 per cent alcohol, and to put into effect the Crabbe prohibition enforcement bill passed by the legislature last spring.

Warmly contested municipal elections brought out a large vote. Mayor Harry L. Davis, Republican, was re-elected in Cleveland; Mayor Cornel Schreiber, Independent, was re-elected in Toledo, and Mayor George J. Karb, Democrat, was defeated for re-election in Columbus by J. J. Thomas, Republican.

SLEEP WITH WINDOW OPEN; KEEP THROAT AND NOSE CLEARED

Don't lie awake at night struggling for breath with head stuffed and nostrils closed. Sleep in a room with a wide open window and keep your nose and throat clear and antiseptic and breathing passages open.

Take every precaution against germs that enter through the nose and mouth and cause influenza, colds, sore throat, tonsillitis, quinsy.

Keep the membranes of the breathing passages antiseptic both day and night. Don't let catarrh or colds take hold. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. This cream quickly penetrates through all the air passages; makes the membranes antiseptic and keeps throat and nostrils clear.

Put your faith—just once—in Ely's Cream Balm. In use for more than 30 years and depended upon by millions.

PROTESTANTS WIN IN SECTARIAN FIGHT

Newfoundland Legislature Will Be Divided on Sectarian Lines, with Protestants in Majority.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 5.—Delayed returns from distant coast districts of Newfoundland given out to-day indicated that as a result of the general election of last Monday the legislature would be divided largely on sectarian issues, with Protestants mainly composing the new government and the Catholics forming the opposition. The present government is headed by Sir Michael Cashin, a Catholic, a fact which was made prominent in the campaign by Protestants of extremist views, who argued that in a country two-thirds Protestant, the premiership should be held by one of that faith.

The returns show that Sir Michael and his colleagues were re-elected from the Ferryland district, as were Minister of Public Works Woodford and colleague from Harbor Main.

Several constituencies have not reported on their balloting.

DEMPSEY SIGNS FOR BIG FIGHT

Agrees to Battle With Joe Beckett, the English
Champion

FORMER WILL GET
$120,000 RECOMPENSE

Promoter Dominick Torto-rich Is Making the Arrangements

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—New Orleans on next St. Patrick's day is to have its first world's championship heavyweight fight since Sept. 7, 1892, when John L. Sullivan lost the title to James J. Corbett, if Dominick Tortorich, the promoter, is able to gain the consent of Joe Beckett, English champion, to meet Jack Dempsey, world's champion, here.

Dempsey's signature was placed on a contract proffered by a promoter at Mobile yesterday, and he will receive $120,000 as his end of the purse if the match goes through. Twenty rounds is specified as the length of the fight.

The agreement between Dempsey and the promoter is conditional on Brockett's success against Carpenter.

In the meantime Dempsey has been offered $75,000 by a local promoter to meet Bill Brennan here prior to the proposed bout with Beckett.

HORSE RACING BOOMS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Record Crowds Have Attended the Events and the Gambling Habit Has Greatly Increased.

London, Nov. 5. (By the Associated Press).—Horse racing, like every other kind of sport here, has experienced a great boom since the war and consequently the gambling habit has increased.

Promoters of race meetings all over the country announce that record crowds have attended the fixtures while the number of horses entered for the races are also showing record proportions. Racing has been a day pass without a meeting of some kind being held in some part of the country. It is divided into two categories—flat racing, which commences in March and ends in November, and steeple-chasing, which finishes out the year.

At the "classic" meetings held at Epsom, Goodwood and Ascot, practically all the aristocrats of the turf congregate. Entertaining takes place on a large scale and the women vie with each other in displaying the latest fashions in dress.

The highest amount paid for the winner of a race is that for the winner of the Derby, amounting to $32,000.
There is more betting on horse race-ing than on any other sport. The English law is peculiar on that point.
Betting on the race course is strictly legal, but the passing of betting slips in the streets is considered a serious offense. Yet one may legally place bets by calling up a bookmaker on a telephone, or by sending name of the horse fancied by telegram or through the post. This anomaly, therefore, occurs:

A betting slip with a horse's name and an amount of money mentioned if handed to a bookmaker in the street is an offense punishable by imprisonment. Yet a telegram to the same bookmaker and containing the same wording handed in at a postoffice is a perfectly legal undertaking, and, incidentally, one which is largely followed.
In the poorer districts where there are thousands of "backers" who make bets varying from a dollar to 12 cents, the street bookmaker does a roaring trade, although he is liable to arrest and his business has perforce to be conducted very secretly, as plain clothes police are always on the lookout for him.

FAVOR LESS TRAPPINGS.

For State Dress of British Government Officials.

London, Nov. 5.—The example set by the United States government in discontinuing several varieties of navy uniforms and dress is being cited as worthy of imitation by agitators who favor economy in state dress. Numerous requests made recently by court officials for increased salaries are attributed by these agitators to greatly heightened costs of the ceremonial attire with which they must outfit themselves before accepting office.

The cost of a court dress for anyone attending one of the king's levees scarcely is less than $825. A lord lieutenant's ceremonial dress, with his royal red swallow-tail coat, silver buttons and lace embroidery brings a tailor's bill of at least $650. The robe of the lord chancellor is valued at $1,000 —it is a gorgeous affair of ermine and silk. The most expensive of all is the official garb of the earl marshal. It contains 1,700 yards of gold embroidery and is worth approximately $1,160.

PLENTY OF SUGAR SOON.

Shortage Will End When New Crop Reaches Market.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—The shortage of sugar will end when the new domestic crop reaches the market, said a minority report filed in the Senate yesterday by Senator Ransdell.
Domestic Louisiana sugar, the majority plan to extend federal control of sugar and authorize purchase of domestic and Cuban sugars. The majority bill would "single out" the American sugar industry for government control and work "irreparable injury" to American producers, Senator Ransdell declared.

"Now that the war is over the natural law of supply and demand should return throughout the nation as promptly as possible," he said.
Senator Ransdell endorsed recommendations to Attorney General Palmer by the sugar equalization board that the government restrict use of sugar for candy, fountain drinks and other luxuries.

More Men Are Wearing Regals

In spite of the greatly increased cost of shoes, people generally are demanding the better makes and better leathers because they are cheaper in the end.

The exceptional qualities of Regal shoes as to materials, workmanship and style are now recognized more than ever; more men are wearing them.

Let us fit your feet to a pair of Regals; they'll

A LITTLE OF HOME IN BRAZIL.

Americans Can See "Movies," and Usually an American Production.

Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—An American visiting small towns in Brazil can easily gratify his desire for home sensory. Whatever the place, large or small, he is sure to find on the main street at least one moving picture theatre and never fails to see there an American production; in fact, seldom anything else.

The Associated Press correspondent had occasion to make a trip on a Brazilian coastwise steamer which made stops at the ports of Paranaguá, San Francisco do Sul, Florianópolis, and Rio Grande, the latter being the largest, with about 14,000 inhabitants. In these typical towns, as in the smaller communities of the United States, the moving picture seems to be the chief source of evening entertainment.

Adorning the foyers of the theatres are always to be seen posters and photographs of well-known American moving picture stars, sent from the United States with the film and with the cap-sions still in English. These are usually supplemented, however, by a brilliant poster done in hand by a local artist, with Portuguese text, emphasizing the thrilling features of the production.

The North American visitor may discover that he has seen the film at home two or three years ago, but even so, he will find something new in the manner in which a film is presented in Brazil. Here, instead of a continuous picture, the film is cut at critical junctures of the plot, and there follows a flash on the screen of "dos minutos de intervalo." The lights go up and thus for an interval of two minutes the audience is held in suspense, wondering what will happen next.

Always the theatres are filled to capacity and the Brazilians discuss the merits of American actors and actresses of the screen as familiarly as any moving picture enthusiast in the United States. The comedians are intensely popular, and there is one, distinguished for being extraordinarily fat, to whom the Brazilians have given the name of "Chico-Boia," meaning "Little Bull."

The advent of a film showing "Chico-Boia" combined with that of a Spanish ventriloquist was made the occasion of a gala night at the moving picture theatre in the little town of Paranaguá.

BIFF!

Stop jolting Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, oil and cathartic waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarets are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no griping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cas-carets cost very little and they work while you sleep.—Adv.

DEFEND THEIR MUSTACHES.

Waiters in Paris Restaurants Incensed Over Clamor for Clean Shave.

Paris, Nov. 5. (By the Associated Press).—Waiters in seven or eight of the largest cafes on the Paris boulevards have been stirred to angry protests by orders to shave their mustaches or quit.

One of the bitterest grievances the waiters had when they went on strike last April was the edict of the employers to the effect that waiters must sacrifice their mustaches. The waiters triumphed and the employers agreed they should be permitted to adorn their visages as they pleased. Now an attempt to revive the ban on mistaches has roused their indignation.

"The waiters are sufficiently humiliated to have to earn their living by extending their hands to receive what often proves to be a ridiculous tip, without being forced to forego one of the privileges of manhood," said the secretary of the union. "Really the ferocious employers know little about psychology. Should they maintain this iniquitous measure destined solely to give their staff a servile appearance toward the customer, they are picking out a poor time for it. Whether through snobishness or in the hope of appearing original, customers choose to make their faces as glabrous and depi-lated as that of the Americans or aim to copy the two comas on the upper lip of a well-known moving picture actor; that is their business. We must insist that the conventions entered into at the time of the strike be respected, that the mustache has always been in vogue in France and to suppress it is an indignity and diminishes the morale, value and patriotism of the personnel of the cafes."

Girls! Your hair needs a little "Danderine"—that's all! When it becomes lifeless, thin or loses its lustre; when ugly dandruff appears, or your hair falls out, a 35-cent bottle of delightful, dependable "Danderine" from any store, will save your hair, also double its beauty. You can have nice, thick hair, too.
